

Word	Meaning(s), Synonyms, Related Words, Analogy	Antonym(s)
appreciate	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>v. [to be thankful] thank; be obliged</li> <li>v. [to be fully aware of] comprehend; apprehend; understand; recognize</li> <li>v. [to increase in value]</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>complain</li> <li></li> <li>depreciate</li> </ol>
apprehend	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>v. [to take into custody] arrest; collar; nab; seize</li> <li>v. [to understand] comprehend; perceive; grasp</li> <li>v. [to anticipate with anxiety] dread</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>set free</li> </ol>
apprise ®	v. [to give information or make aware of] notify; inform; advise
approbation ®	n. [official approval or recognition] approval; sanction; consent; endorsement; esteem; praise; commendation Analogy:  praise : approbation :: demur : objection  approbation : reprehensible :: censure : blameless	disapprobation ; execration; condemnation
appropriate ®	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>adj. [suitable or proper] fit; opposite; pertinent; apt; meet</li> <li>v. [to set aside or to allot] allocate; assign; reserve; apportion; earmark</li> <li>v. [to take away without permission or with force] seize; usurp; capture; conquer; commandeer; confiscate; expropriate</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>inappropriate</li> </ol>
apropos	adj. [appropriate to the situation] apt; opportune ; pertinent	malapropos; inopportune; untimely; irrelevant;
arable	adj. [suitable for producing crops] cultivable; tillable; fertile
arbiter	n. [someone chosen to judge and decide a disputed issue] judge; referee; arbitrator ; umpire
arduous ®	adj. [hard or laborious to accomplish] difficult; onerous ; strenuous; toilsome; effortful; gruelling	facile ; effortless
arid	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>adj. [excessively dry; lacking enough water for things to grow] dry; parched; sere; sear; scorched; withered</li> <li>adj. [not interesting; lifeless] dull; desiccate</li> </ol> Analogy: desert : arid :: marsh : sodden
aristocracy	n. [a privileged ruling class] nobility; gentry	people; peasantry; proletariat
aromatic	adj. [having a strong distinctive smell, usually a sweet smell] fragrant; redolent Related Words:  pungent: having a sharp or spicy or offensive smell;  odoriferous	putrid
arrogance	n. [a feeling of superiority or excessive self-importance] pride; haughtiness; hauteur; disdain; hubris; contemptuousness; imperiousness; overbearingness; superciliousness Analogy:  arrogance : defer :: lassitude : stir  meek : arrogance :: mean : prodigality	humility ; modesty; shyness
artless ®	adj. [simple and natural; without cunning or deceit] ingenuous; naïve; guileless; unsophisticated Analogy:  artless : guile :: impeccable : blemish  artlessness : guile :: dabbler : dedication	cunning; sly; guileful; artful; sophisticated; urbanity; duplicity; disingenuous
ascetic ®	adj. [practicing great self-denial] severe; austere; spartan; rigorous Analogy: ascetic : self-indulgence :: glutton : overindulgence	indulgent; voluptuary; sybaritic; epicurean; sumptuous