

Word	Meaning(s), Synonyms, Related Words, Analogy	Antonym(s) havoc	n. [great destruction and devastation] mayhem ; plunder heresy	n. [an opinion which is contrary to the beliefs held by the church] dissidence; nonconformity; heterodoxy ; unorthodoxy Analogy: recantation : heresy :: apostasy : faith	dogma hiatus	n. [any gap or interruption, as in time or continuity] interval; respite ; reprieve ; suspension hibernate	v. [sleep throughout the winter, as of certain animals(bears)] Related Words: estivate (also aestivate): v. sleep during summer, as of certain animals (snails)	estivate hovel	n. [a small, miserable, and often dirty house] shack; shanty Analogy: palatial : hovel :: bucolic : city hover	1. v. [to be undecided about something] vacillate ; waver 2. v. [to be suspended in the air, as against gravity] levitate 3. v. [to linger or wait close by, esp. in an overprotective or anxious way] linger humble	1. adj. [marked by meekness and modesty; not proud] meek ; modest; unassuming ; retiring 2. adj. [low in condition, rank or position] lowly; unpretentious; modest 3. v. [to lower in pride or in condition, rank or position] abase ; mortify ; humiliate Analogy: humble : bumptious :: genial : dour	1. supercilious; proud; haughty; conceited; overweening; bumptious hummock	n. [a small natural hill or a raised area of land] hillock; hammock; knoll ; mound	vale; valley hurtle	1. v. [to dash against with great force] crash; collide 2. v. [to move forcefully and swiftly] rush; lunge ; plunge; thrust hyperbole ®	n. [exaggeration for effect and not meant to be taken literally (Ex: He is as strong as an ox)] overstatement; embellishment; embroidery Analogy: exaggerated : hyperbole :: nonsensical : drivel	understatement hypothetical	adj. [assumed] suppositious ; supposed; imagined iconoclastic ®	1. adj. [attacking accepted ideas and beliefs] nonconforming; irreverent ; dissident ; unorthodox 2. adj. [opposing use of images or idols in religion] idolatry ®	1. n. [excessive or extreme devotion to a person or thing] veneration; adulation 2. n. [worship of idols] ignite	1. v. [to set fire to; cause to burn] light; kindle ; enkindle; inflame 2. v. [to arouse the feelings of passions of] excite; incite ; kindle ; inspire; animate; inflame	1. extinguish illicit	adj. [not allowed by law, custom, rule, etc.] illegitimate; unlawful; outlawed; prohibited; unauthorized	licit; legitimate imbue	1. v. [to fill with moisture] saturate ; soak 2. v. [to fill with color or dye] hue ; tinge 3. v. [to fill or inspire, with principles, ideas, emotions, etc.] permeate; pervade; diffuse	