

Word	Meaning(s), Synonyms, Related Words, Analogy	Antonym(s) imminent	adj. [likely to happen without delay] impending ; looming; forthcoming; proximate immunity	1. n. [exemption from something burdensome] freedom; privilege; license 2. n. [resistance to or protection against a particular disease] resistance	1. 2. susceptibility immure	v. [to lock up or confine, in or as in a jail] imprison; incarcerate ; confine ; constrain; jail; gaol	liberate; release immutable ®	adj. [not capable of or susceptible to change] changeless; unalterable Analogy: immutable : altered :: implacable : propitiated immutable : change :: transitory : endure	variable impair ®	1. v. [to damage or injure] spoil; vitiate ; mar 2. v. [to weaken] undermine ; diminish; sap impale	v. [to pierce or to fix in place with a sharp or pointed object] pierce; spike; stake; stab impasse	n. [a situation in which no progress can be made] deadlock ; stalemate ; standstill impassive ®	adj. [not showing emotion; not easily excited] stolid ; stoic ; phlegmatic ; callous ; deadpan ; apathetic; insensate Analogy: impassive : perturb :: voracious : satisfy deadpan : impassive :: drawl : slow	emotional; fervid; demonstrative impeccable	1. adj. [without fault or error] faultless; immaculate ; flawless; irreproachable 2. adj. [not capable of sin or wrongdoing] virtuous Analogy: impeccable : blemish :: artless : guile impeccable : flaw :: restive : calmness	1. faulty impecunious	adj. [having very little or no money] penniless; penurious; pinched; insolvent ; indigent ; destitute Analogy: impecunious : money :: foolish : discretion pelf : impecunious :: experience : green	prosperous; affluent; lavish; wealthy impede ®	v. [to obstruct or to delay] hinder; thwart ; block; deter; occlude Analogy: obstacle : impede :: blandishment : cajole	facilitate; promote imperative	1. adj. [absolutely necessary and urgent] crucial; compelling 2. adj. [having the nature of power or authority] commanding; authoritative ; dominant Analogy: imperative : order :: interrogative : question imperial	1. adj. [dignified, like an emperor] regal ; royal; majestic; august ; purple 2. adj. [concerning an emperor or empress] sovereign; hegemonic; august Analogy: imperial : significant :: spartan : austere imperil	v. [to put in danger] endanger; jeopardize ; menace; threaten; expose; hazard; peril impermeable ®	adj. [not allowing the passage of fluids] impervious	permeable; porous