

Word	Meaning(s), Synonyms, Related Words, Analogy	Antonym(s)
reproach ®	1. v. [to blame someone for a fault so as to make him feel ashamed] reprove; chide; condemn 2. n. [shame or disgrace] ignominy Related words: irreproachable: adj. above reproach; without any blame culpable and impeachable which mean deserving blame are antonyms of irreproachable Analogy: irreproachable : blame :: irresponsible : restraint reprobate ®	n. [a morally unprincipled person] miscreant; wretch; pervert; degenerate Analogy: reprobate : misbehave :: sycophant : fawn repudiate ®	1. [to cast off or disown] renounce; disinherit 2. [to refuse to accept or pay] demur; decline 3. [to deny any knowledge or validity of] retract; repeal; revoke	1. uphold; espouse 2. accept repugnance	n. [extreme dislike] revulsion; disgust; loathing; deep aversion Analogy: odious : repugnance :: menacing : fear repugnant : repel :: cogent : convince	love; affinity reputed	adj. [known as or regarded as] supposed; alleged; putative ; presumed; purported rescind ®	v. [to repeal or cancel (a law, order, etc.)] revoke ; repeal ; abolish ; abrogate ; annul ; countermand	institute; enact; establish reserve	1. n. [formality and correctness in manner] modesty 2. n. [the trait of being uncommunicative] reticence; loquacity 3. n. [keeping one's thoughts, feelings, etc. to oneself] self-restraint 4. v. [set aside for future use or emergency] resolution ®	n. [determination] resolve; resoluteness; perseverance; tenacity; fortitude. Adj. resolute Analogy: resolute : dissuade :: obstreperous : control resolute : sway :: indubitable : questioned	vacillation resolve ®	n. [determination] resolution ; determination ; resoluteness. also v.	vacillation resonant	adj. [resounding] reverberating ; sonorous ; booming	muffled respiration	n. [a single complete cycle of breathing and out] breathing Related Words: inhalation: n. the act of drawing air into the lungs exhalation: n. the act of expelling air from the lungs; expiration restive	1. adj. [nervous or impatient because of pressure or restraint] fidgety; jittery; nervy; uptight 2. adj. [hard to control; stubborn] unruly; refractory; balky (restive horses) Analogy: restive : calm :: piddling : considerable restive : calmness :: incogitant : thoughtfulness restive : calmness :: impetuous : patience	1. imperturbable; calm; contented