

Word	Meaning(s), Synonyms, Related Words, Analogy	Antonym(s) resuscitate	v. [to revive; to bring back to life someone apparently dead or unconscious, as by artificial respiration, etc.] revive; revitalize; reanimate reticent ®	adj. [not inclined to speak or communicate] reserved ; restrained; taciturn Analogy: reticent : talk :: abstemious : gorge	loquacious; vociferous; voluble; effusive; talkative retribution	1. n. [the act of taking revenge] vengeance; retaliation ; requital; reprisal 2. n. [punishment for evil done or reward for good done] compensation retroactive	adj. [taking effect on a past date (a law, imposition of a tax, etc.)] retrograde	1. v. [to go, or appear to go, backward] regress; retrogress; recede; retreat. Also adj. 2. v. [to become worse] degenerate ; deteriorate. Also adj.	1. progress retrospective	adj. [looking back on the past or past events] reflective; pensive	prospective; anticipatory reverend	1. adj. [worthy of respect] venerated ; honored; revered; sublime 2. n. [a priest in the Christian Church] priest; clergyman; minister reverent ®	adj. [showing great respect or devotion] venerating; worshipful; deferential; adoring; pious ; solemn	irreverent rickety	adj. [being shaky because of weakness or defect] shaky; fragile; wobbly; unsteady Analogy: furniture : rickety :: cloth : ragged rout	1. n. [a disorderly crowd of people] mob; rabble; commotion 2. n. [a crushing defeat] rue	v. [to feel remorse or repentance for (a sin, fault, etc.)] lament; bemoan Analogy: remorse : rue :: longing : pine	satisfaction rustle	1. v. [to make a dry crackling sound] crackle 2. v. [to steal cattle (or horses or livestock) from a farm] Analogy: rustle : cattle :: plagiarize : ideas ruthless	adj. [without pity or mercy] pitiless; merciless; remorseless; cruel	merciful; compassionate sacrosanct	adj. [very sacred or holy] hallowed ; inviolable sage ®	n. [a very wise person respected for his wisdom, experience and judgement] philosopher sallow	adj. [having a sickly, pale yellow coloring about the skin; unhealthy looking] pallid ; wan	ruddy salubrious ®	adj. [favourable to or promoting health] healthy; wholesome; sanitary; beneficial Analogy: salubrious : health :: instructive : comprehension	deleterious; virulent; noxious; unwholesome; noisome; baneful; morbid; miasmatic salvage	1. v. [to save from ruin or destruction] salve; rescue; redeem; relieve 2. v. [to collect discarded material or waste] scavenge	1. abandon