

Word	Meaning(s), Synonyms, Related Words, Analogy	Antonym(s) sanction ®	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> v. [approve; authorize] ratify; confirm; countenance; endorse. Also n. n. [a mechanism for enforcing social obedience either by penalties or rewards] command; writ; embargo; injunction; penalty Analogy: sanction : approve :: indict : accuse	1. proscribe; dismiss sanguine	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> adj. [having a reddish complexion; healthy looking] ruddy; rubicund adj. [cheerful and confident] optimistic; hopeful; enthusiastic 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> pessimistic; morose; despondent sartor	n. [a person whose occupation is making and altering garments] tailor; seamster satiate ®	v. [having had enough or more than enough] sate ; surfeit ; binge; cloy; gorge ; glut ; gourmandize . N. satiety saturate ®	v. [to fill completely] infuse; impregnate; soak; drench; steep	devoid savor ®	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> v. [take pleasure in a taste or odor] relish; enjoy v. [to have a distinctive taste or smell or quality] Analogy: savory : taste :: mellifluous : sound scale	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> n. [an instrument for measuring weight] balance n. [a series of notes differing in pitch according to a specific scheme (music)] range v. [to climb] ascend; mount; surmount Analogy: scale : weight :: yardstick : length color : spectrum :: tone : scale scanty	adj. [insufficient; not enough] meagre ; scarce; scant; sparse ; inadequate	plentiful; ample; profuse; myriad; plethora; abundant; considerable score	n. [a written or printed copy of a musical composition showing the music for all parts and instruments at once] Analogy: conductor : score :: director : script notes : score :: symbols : rebus score : music :: script : drama scuttle	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> v. [to cause a ship to sink by opening or making holes in its hull] submerge; destroy v. [to move about in a hurried manner] scurry; scamper; scramble seamy	adj. [unpleasant; morally degraded] sordid ; squalid ; seedy ; sleazy ; disagreeable seasoned	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> adj. [experienced] veteran; mature; established adj. [spicy] flavored secession	n. [to separate formally from an alliance or federation] withdrawal secrete ®	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> v. [to hide away or cache] conceal; cache; seclude v. [to form and release bodily fluids] perspire; discharge; swelter; ooze; exude 	absorb; divulge