

Word	Meaning(s), Synonyms, Related Words, Analogy	Antonym(s) spectrum ®	1. n. [a coloured band formed when a beam of white light is dispersed (as by passage through a prism)] 2. n. [a broad range of connected ideas or events] range; gamut Analogy: color : spectrum :: tone : scale sporadic ®	adj. [happening from time to time in an occasional unpredictable manner] infrequent; occasional	frequent; regular; chronic; continual spurious	1. adj. [not true or genuine; false] counterfeit; deceptive; apocryphal ; artificial; bogus 2. adj. [plausible but false, as an argument] specious	1. genuine; authentic squalor	n. [dirtiness] squalidness; sordidness ; filthiness; wretchedness squat	adj. [short and thick] stocky staccato	1. adj. [made up of abrupt, distinct elements or sounds] 2. adj. [having distinct breaks between successive tones (in music)]	1. 2. legato staunch	1. adj. [firm and dependable] loyal; steadfast ; unswerving 2. v. [to stop the flow of a liquid, as of blood from a wound] stanch ; stem ; halt stentorian	adj. [very loud, of voice] blaring; booming; sonorous ; resounding Analogy: audible : stentorian :: discernible : obvious audible : stentorian :: comprehensible : lucid	faint stereotype	n. [a conventional and oversimplified concept or image, often reflecting prejudice] convention ; notion	original stifle	1. v. [to hold back or restrain] suppress ; repress ; inhibit 2. v. [to kill by cutting of air supply] suffocate; smother; choke; asphyxiate	1. elicit; foster; foment stigma ®	n. [a mark of shame or disgrace] reproach; brand; stain stint ®	1. v. [to be thrifty by setting limits on quantity] skimp ; scrimp; economize 2. n. [an assigned task or quantity of work] assignment; consignment; task	1. lavish; squander stipple	v. [to paint or draw in small points or dots] dapple ; speckle Analogy: stipple : dot :: striate : band stipulate ®	v. [to state or put forward as a necessary condition in an agreement] condition; qualify; specify stodgy	adj. [dull and uninteresting and conventional] stuffy; boring; tedious Analogy: stodgy : conservative :: mawkish : sentimental	exciting stolid ®	adj. [having or showing little or no emotion] impassive ; unexcitable; apathetic; phlegmatic Analogy: phlegmatic : stolid :: peripatetic : itinerant stratified	adj. [arranged in a sequence of grades or layers or strata] layered; graded	